

ABOUT THE TEACHING ARTIST

Adriana Camacho-Church is an author, freelance writer, and public library reference and program coordinator. As a bilingual children's book author, she has held book presentations at The National Museum of the American Latino in Washington DC, Longwood Gardens in Pennsylvania—one of the great gardens of the world, and the Texas Book Festival—one of the largest in the country. Other book signings and presentations include schools, libraries, parks, museums, bookstores, and coffee shops. In her brief time as an author Adriana's books have received awards, reviews from prestigious national journals, and special recognitions. Media platforms include news journals, magazines, YouTube, TV, and podcasts.
