

An Evening With Andrew Lloyd Webber

Monday, November 10, 2025 | 5:30–9:00 PM

The Delaware Art Museum welcomes iconic composer Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber for a once-in-a-lifetime intimate evening of conversation and art. A devoted collector of British Pre-Raphaelite art, Lord Lloyd Webber is an admirer of our Pre-Raphaelite collection—the largest of its kind outside the United Kingdom. Proceeds from this special evening directly support the Delaware Art Museum’s exhibitions, education programs, and community initiatives.

As Delaware’s largest art museum, DelArt will serve more than 100,000 visitors in 2025 from Wilmington and beyond. Founded in 1912 to honor Wilmington native and renowned illustrator Howard Pyle, the Museum’s permanent collection of more than 13,000 works is rooted in the art created, exhibited, and collected in Delaware. Your sponsorship ensures that DelArt continues to thrive as a welcoming space where people gather, find common ground, and experience the power of art together.

Lord Lloyd Webber toured DelArt in spring 2025, joined by Executive Director Molly Giordano and Dr. Sophie Lynford, Annette Woolard-Provine Curator of the Bancroft Collection.
